Senate Votes, 63 To 23, To Repeal 18th Amendment

ISSUE WILL GO TO HOUSE FOR ACTION

Speaker Garner Says Will Call Measure Up Monday And Sees Passage.
SUBSTITUTE KILLED
Bill Submitted By Senator Glass Is Lost By Vote Of 46 To 38 In Senate

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—(UP)—The senate today voted to repeal the 18th amendment. The issue now goes to the House where Speaker Garner, planning to bring it to a test Monday, insists he has sufficient votes for passage. The vote was 63 to 23. A two-thirds vote is required for submission of a constitutional amendment to the states. The resolution passed today provides for outright repeal of the 18th amendment, but assures protection to dry states from the liquor traffic. If the resolution is successful in the house it will be submitted to the states for ratification. Three-fourths of them must approve the new amendment. Packed galleries watched the senate take the first step toward conclusion of a 13-year wet fight against national prohibition. A solid body of house members lined the back wall. Triumphant wets, whose lines had seemed to weaken earlier in the day when Republicans deserted almost flatly to repeal for some protection against the saloon, got back in line and swept all amendments aside. Among the amendments shouted down viva voce or defeated by record votes was a proposal by Senator Glass, Dem., Va., to substitute a repealer protecting dry states and prohibiting consumption of liquor in places "commonly known as saloons." Senator Reed, Repn., Pa., who earlier had announced he would move to reconsider the vote by which concurrent congressional power over the saloon was eliminated, desisted when the Glass amendment was rejected which provided for protection of dry states, outlawing of the saloon and ratification through conventions in the states. The vote was 46 to 38. The two California senators, Johnson and Shortridge, voted for repeal.

CHINESE BANDITS CAPTURE VILLAGE

HARBIN, Manchuria, Feb. 16.—(UP)—Five Japanese soldiers were killed today in capturing the town of Chungshingchen, five miles east of Sanchienfang in Heilungjiang province, from a band of 400 Chinese guerrillas. The Japanese troops encountered stiff resistance when they attempted to storm the town by an infantry charge. They succeeded in routing the guerrilla force after a brisk battle. The guerrilla army fled toward the Russian border.

THREE GUESSES

INQUEST INTO BLYTHE DEATHS STILL PENDING

No Funeral Arrangements Made For Victims Of Triple Slaying
WHILE ALL OF Santa Ana today slowly recovered from the shock caused by the triple slaying in the Gallatin grammar school at Downey yesterday afternoon when Dr. Vernon Blythe, 36, well-known Santa Ana dentist killed his wife, his 8-year-old son Robert, and then turned the gun on himself, the bodies of the three lay side by side, in a quiet little funeral home there this afternoon. The oldest son, Vernon, Jr., alone escaped, although his father shot at him as he fled down the street. Whether an inquest will be held has not been determined by the Los Angeles county coroner's office and it is likely that none will be held, according to word from the Downey police, but pending the coroner's decision, the bodies will be held in Downey. No plans for the funerals of the victims of Dr. Blythe's gun have been made, so far as can be learned. The tragedy, which probably struck this city with greater force than any like it in a number of years, continues today to stun, for the Blythe family was well-known here and had been for a number of years. Feared for Life In connection with the case it was learned here today that Mrs. Eleanor Blythe, 33, the wife and mother, first to die in the triple slaying, had been in constant fear of her life for many years. This was revealed in a court record showing that she had previously filed suit for divorce from Dr. Blythe on January 25, 1928, seven years ago. The case lay pending in the courts here until July 29, 1929, when it was dismissed at her request, a reconciliation having been effected between the couple in the meantime. In this complaint she set forth the same charges which were filed against Dr. Blythe yesterday morning in another divorce action, and which is believed to have thrown him into a rage which resulted in killing his wife and son and then himself. ### CONGRESSMAN DIES AS RESULT OF FALL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—(UP)—Rep. Godfrey G. Goodwin of Minnesota fell or jumped to his death today from a fifth floor window of his hotel here. Goodwin's body was found by an employee of the hotel shortly before 8 a. m. Police estimated he had been dead about two hours. Goodwin, a Republican, had represented the tenth Minnesota district in the house since 1925. Associates said Goodwin had been despondent in recent months. He was defeated in the last election and his term of service would have ended March 4. He was 60 years old. Modest and retiring, he was a hard working member of the important house banking and currency committee.

Caster of Los Angeles, veteran passenger conductor, died here today from gunshot wounds inflicted by a bandit whom he killed during an interrupted holdup aboard the Southern Pacific Golden State Limited. Caster, entering from the front, opened fire and in the exchange D. Byers of Beverly Hills, Calif., a passenger, was shot in the right leg. Physicians gave the conductor an even chance to recover.

CHARGES INSULL REPORTS ON PROFITS, LOSSES CONFLICTED

Owen Young Questioned By Probers

Reveals Millions Loaned To Utility Group By General Electric
WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—(UP)—Loans of several million dollars to the Insull Utility group were described today by Owen D. Young after the Senate inquiry into the collapsed utilities empire had produced charges that the Insull organizations reported profits to the public while listing losses for income tax purposes. Samuel Insull Jr., was questioned concerning the conflicting reports on profits and losses before Young was called as a witness. Ferdinand Pecora, committee counsel, took up the questioning of Young after he had produced accountant's reports and income tax returns for 1930 and 1931. "Do you recall in December, 1931, whether the General Electric made a loan to any companies in the Insull group?" Pecora asked. "Young, who is chairman of General Electric, said a loan had been made. "Mr. Insull came to see me December 10, 1931, and said he wanted to obtain a $2,000,000 loan from the General Electric company," Young said. "He said he would deposit collateral 40 per cent in excess of the loan and he offered to endorse the loan personally and to keep the collateral 40 per cent in excess of the advance." Young said that it was a six months loan. "It was not a matter of importance to me which of the companies would get the loan. I was relying on the collateral and on Mr. Insull's word." Young said he discussed the (Continued on Page 2)

STATEMENT ISSUED TO LEAGUE NATIONS

GENEVA, Feb. 16.—(UP)—The Japanese government "cannot conceal its apprehension" regarding the possibility of serious developments in the far east, a statement issued by the Japanese delegation to the League of Nations said today. The statement reviewed the Japanese efforts toward conciliation of the Manchurian dispute and concluded: "The Japanese government cannot conceal its apprehension that an unrealistic and theoretical decision taken by the committee of 19 would make extremely difficult the task of restoring peace and tranquility in the far east, since such a course cannot fail to have serious repercussions on the general situation in that part of the world."

THIRTEEN SUBMIT RESERVOIRS BIDS

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 16.—(UP)—Thirteen companies submitted bids on construction of six 300,000 gallon water reservoirs and 85 miles of pipeline in connection with the $229,000,000 Colorado river aqueduct project, the Metropolitan water district announced today. Clark & Campbell and A. J. Callahan, Los Angeles, submitted a joint low bid of $12,892,500 for excavation; Ray Switzer, Los Angeles, bid $27,139 for hauling and stringing pipe, welding joints and appurtenant work, while Macco Robertson company, Los Angeles, entered the low figure of $17,384 for construction of the six reservoirs.

DETROIT BANKS REOPEN DOORS THIS MORNING

Will Do Business Up To 5 Percent of Deposits; Release Millions
DETROIT, Feb. 16.—(UP)—Banks reopened all over Michigan today in the course of an eight day gubernatorial moratorium. Reconstruction of the shaken financial structure of this far flung state progressed rapidly, despite the foreboding prediction of its Governor, William A. Comstock, who tarried in Detroit after a hurried trip from the state capitol at Lansing to arrange for cashing R. F. C. relief checks. All Detroit banks, with the exception of the Guardian Trust company and its branches, reopened to do business up to five per cent of deposits. That action released $25,000,000 cash to the city's business. Michigan's holiday was not rescinded—the governor made it plain—but his allowance for the "common sense of Bankers" resulted in quick recovery of normal banking conditions over most of the state. As Governor Comstock met men of affairs here today to detail his statement, that a dictator for all banks is necessary to avert chaos, small city, village and hamlet banks reopened because of the faith of the common folk. Some of the legislation that the government declared necessary for sane, healthy continuation of the financial equilibrium of Michigan was introduced at Lansing. That legislation was designed to remedy the defects in the present system seen by Governor Comstock when he declared an eight day bank moratorium last Tuesday, closing 540 Michigan banks and tying up $1,500,000,000. A bill giving permission to the state bank commissioner to take over affairs of any state or private bank or trust company, upon petition of its officials and the consent of the governor, was introduced in the house of representatives.

B. Rowland, past commander of Fort Sutter post, American Legion. The new legislative bureau represents various posts of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Disabled American Veterans, United Spanish War Veterans and other veterans' organizations. Rowland said. The proposed amendment against which the veterans plan to launch their fight was introduced by Assemblyman Albert Ross, Redding.

BUCHAREST, Feb. 16.—(UP)—Romanian troops fired with machine guns on 4,000 workers barricaded in the state railway shops here, killing four workers, wounding a dozen others, and forcing the immediate surrender of 2500. ### SHOT DOWN BY ASSASSIN

Mayor Anton Cermak of Chicago, who is fighting for his life in a Miami hospital after being wounded by a bullet from an assassin's gun that was intended to end the life of President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt last night. Cermak at noon today was reported to have a fifty-fifty chance for recovery.

DENVER POLICE FAIL TO FIND KIDNAP CLEWS

Break Between Officials And Boettcher Family Hampers Search
DENVER, Feb. 16.—(UP)—An apparent break between police and the family of young Charles Boettcher, II, kidnaped Denver millionaire, complicated the search for him today. Unwillingness of Boettcher's father, Claude K. Boettcher, to "put his cards on the table" was blamed by Chief of Police Albert T. Clark for the rupture. The crime has not been solved because the father of the victim has not taken them into his confidence, Clark said. The Boettchers regarded Clark's statement as an effort to excuse the police failure to turn up any tangible lead in the case. The question was put one month ago during a conference at the Biltmore hotel, Los Angeles, Hart said. Previously, three months before, Hart testified, Dr. Toner asked him if he would be "anxious to learn of a friend of the administration who would be a help in disposing of the property," Hart said that he had replied affirmatively, and that then Dr. Toner gave him the name and telephone number of Jack G. Kuhrt, broker. Kuhrt is the broker who negotiated sale of the Lewis ranch in Ventura county to the state as a site for a mental hospital, receiving $20,500 commission. On the stand yesterday, he was examined as to what he did with $19,000 in 1909 bills he admittedly withdrew in cash after depositing his commission. The Dunn ranch was under consideration as a site for an intermediate state prison for first offenders and post adolescents. Dr. Toner was called as the next witness. He categorically denied that he had ever discussed Kuhrt with Hart, but said he believed he had called Hart on the telephone at one time, as he was in communication with various brokers. Dr. Toner also denied that he had mentioned to anyone the payment of a cash consideration, or had suggested Kuhrt be brought into the deal.

REALTY BROKER SAYS DR. TONER AIDED IN DEAL

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 16.—(UP)—Testifying before a state senate investigating committee, Frank Hart, real estate broker, today accused Dr. J. N. Toner, state director of institutions, of demanding to know "how much there would be in it for him" if he threw his influence toward purchase by the state of the Dunn ranch near Saugus as a site for a prison. The question was put one month ago during a conference at the Biltmore hotel, Los Angeles, Hart said. Previously, three months before, Hart testified, Dr. Toner asked him if he would be "anxious to learn of a friend of the administration who would be a help in disposing of the property," Hart said that he had replied affirmatively, and that then Dr. Toner gave him the name and telephone number of Jack G. ### DECLARES STATE OFFICIAL WANTED TO KNOW "WHAT WAS IN IT FOR HIM"

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 16.—(UP)—Testifying before a state senate investigating committee, Frank Hart, real estate broker, today accused Dr. J. N. Toner, state director of institutions, of demanding to know "how much there would be in it for him" if he threw his influence toward purchase by the state of the Dunn ranch near Saugus as a site for a prison. The question was put one month ago during a conference at the Biltmore hotel, Los Angeles, Hart said. ## PRESIDENT ELECT BARELY ESCAPES AS FIVE OTHERS INJURED; LEAVES FOR N. Y.

Chicago Mayor Fighting for Life In Miami Hospital; Thousands Are Witnesses at Dramatic Scene

CRAZED ITALIAN ARRESTED
BULLETIN
MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 16.—(UP)—Mayor Anton J. Cermak of Chicago, wounded by an assassin's bullet, was sleeping at 3:20 p. m., and physicians decided against issuing another report on his condition.

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 16.—(UP)—President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt, saved from an assassin's bullets by the heroism of a woman, departed for New York today, leaving behind him, dangerously wounded, his friend, Mayor Anton Cermak of Chicago. Mr. Roosevelt's last act before leaving the scene of the most dramatic event of his career, was to visit the Jackson Memorial hospital and express words of comfort and hope to Cermak and four other victims of last night's attempted assassination. For five minutes he remained with the mayor, whose name is on the hospital's danger list, and then in turn visited Mrs. Joseph H. Gill, also desperately wounded, and Miss Margaret Kruis of Newark, N. J., William Sinnott of New York and Russell Caldwell of Florida, less seriously wounded. The president-elect escaped injury by the narrowest of margins. The assailant was a crazed Italian bricklayer from Hackensack, N. J. He rose in a crowd of thousands, which had turned out to welcome the president elect, and spattered bullets around the Roosevelt automobile. The assailant, Giuseppe Zangara, 33, and his roommate, Andra Valenti, were held safely by police after aroused Floridians had threatened violence. Delays Return Mr. Roosevelt delayed his scheduled journey to New York so he could visit his friend, Mayor Cermak, and the other injured in Jackson Memorial hospital this morning. He left by train for New York from Miami at 10:15 a. m. today. The injured, in addition to Mayor Cermak, were Mrs. Joseph H. Gill, wife of the president of the Florida Power and Light Co. A bullet entered her lower right chest, passed through the stomach and lodged in the muscles of her back. An emergency operation failed to yield the bullet. She was said to have an even chance to survive. Miss Margaret Cruise, Newark, N. J., slightly wounded. William Sinnott, New York detective, shot in head. Russell Caldwell, 5, slightly hurt. Mr. Roosevelt arrived here aboard (Continued on Page 2)

DOUBLE GUARDS AROUND HOOVER AND ROOSEVELT

President Sends Telegram To Successor Rejoicing Over His Escape

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—(UP)—The secret service today redoubled its protection of President Hoover and President-elect Roosevelt while the nation's highest officials expressed thankfulness that Mr. Roosevelt had escaped a gunman's bullets in Miami. Senator J. Hamilton Lewis of Illinois suggested that elaborate outdoor inauguration ceremonies on March 4 be cancelled so Mr. Roosevelt's appearances before crowds could be made as brief as possible. Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, chairman of the inaugural committee, said however, that there would be no change in arrangements for elaborate outdoor ceremonies during which Mr. Roosevelt would face crowds of many thousands. "Our plans for the inaugural will be carried through as originally intended," Grayson said. "If there are to be augmented forward and I talked with him a minute about Chicago in general. Then he moved off behind the car. Bob Clark (one of the secret service men) was standing right by him. As he moved away, a man came forward with a long telegram and started telling me what it contained. While he was talking, I leaned forward. "Just then I heard what I thought was a firecracker, then several more. The man talking to me pulled back and the chauffeur started the car. "I looked around and saw Mayor Cermak doubled up and Mrs. Gill collapsing. I told the chauffeur to stop. He did, about 15 feet from where he started. The secret service men shouted 'get out of the crowd.' The chauffeur started again and I stopped him again. This time at the corner of the handstand. "Looking back I saw Cermak being carried along and we put him in our car. He was alive but I was afraid he wouldn't last. I got my hand on his pulse and found none. He was on the seat with me and I had my left arm around him. (Continued on Page 2)

ROOSEVELT TELLS REPORTERS HIS EXPERIENCES AS TARGET FOR 'HATER OF PRESIDENTS'

A BOARD ROOSEVELT SPECIAL TRAIN, Enroute to New York, Feb. 16.—(UP)—President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt this afternoon told newspapermen his experiences as a target for the bullets of a frenzied "hater of presidents and kings." Sitting comfortably in the drawing room of his private car, Mr. Roosevelt spoke calmly, and showed no trace of the ordeal in which he saw his friend, Mayor Anton Cermak of Chicago, shot down, and four others wounded. In his own words, between puffs on a cigarette, he sketched the details of the frantic two minutes covering the event. "I have heard so many accounts myself," he said, "that I have been trying to think what really happened, as I saw it." "After I had finished speaking," he continued, "someone from the talking picture people climbed on the back of the car and said, 'You must repeat the speech for us.' I said I would not. He said, 'We have come 1000 miles for this.' I said, 'I am very sorry, but I can't do it.' "Having said that, I slid off the back of my car into my seat. "Just then, Mayor Cermak came (Continued on Page 2) guards or other extra safeguards, these are matters for the secret service."

Issue Statement
President Hoover issued a statement denouncing the attempted attack as a "dastardly act" and rejoicing over the safety of the man to whom he will surrender the country's highest office in just 14 days.

Mr. Hoover had retired when first word of the shooting was flashed to the White House by the United Press. He was aroused at once. After receiving details he issued the following statement:

"I am deeply shocked at the news. It is a dastardly act."

The president also dispatched the following telegram to Mr. Roosevelt:

"Together with every citizen, I rejoice that you have not been injured. I shall be grateful to you for news of Mayor Cermak's condition."

Strengthens Guards
White House Richard Jervis, veteran secret service officer in charge of the White House detail, immediately strengthened the guard of operatives at the mansion.

Additional guards also were assigned to Vice President Curtis and Vice President-elect Garner.

Rep. Britten, Repn., Ill., said "This first danger to President-elect Roosevelt will arouse the American people to the necessity of properly protecting his life every minute of the day."

Chief William H. Moran of the secret service, ill in bed with influenza, received a brief telephone report from his assistant, Joseph Murphy, in charge of the detail assigned to Roosevelt. Murphy reported that Mr. Roosevelt had just sat down in the rear seat of his automobile when the would-be assassin opened fire.

When Dr. Blythe was served with the divorce papers here yesterday morning, he is believed to have immediately armed himself, gone to Francis Willard Junior High school, where he took his oldest son from school, telling him that they were going to Downey to see "Bobby," Robert, 8, had left Santa Ana Monday with his mother when Mrs. Blythe decided to leave her husband, and just prior to the filing of the divorce action. "We'll see whether your mother or I get Bobby," Vernon is reported to have told authorities after the shooting.

He said he knew something was going to happen, "because papa was awfully mad." It was his knowledge of his father's wrath which probably saved his life.

Arriving at the school house, Vernon was ordered to remain in the car and Dr. Blythe went to the front door of the building where he was met by Mrs. Edith Unsworth, the teacher. He asked to come in, to witness the children at work. Admitted, he was given a seat at the rear of the class room, which was near his wife and son. Mrs. Blythe was sitting directly behind her son's desk.

Dr. Blythe sat there for a few moments and seemed interested in the work going on. Then as the teacher turned her back, he stood up, walked to within a few feet of Mrs. Blythe, whipped out an old-fashioned .41 calibre revolver and fired, the bullet striking his wife in the back of the head. She fell forward, instantly killed. Another shot rang out, and little Bobby slipped down in his seat. He had been struck in the head too and his death also was immediate.

Mad Scene
Dr. Blythe then started out of the school room. Children were screaming, several jumped from windows and the entire class room was a scene of bedlam. He reached the door and was met there by W. C. Metcalf, secretary of the school board which was holding a meeting in another room when the shooting started. Metcalf said he was menaced by the pistol and thought for a moment that Dr. Blythe would fire at him.

PRINCIPALS IN TRIPLE SHOOTING AT DOWNEY

Below, left to right are Dr. Vernon Blythe, Santa Ana dentist, who killed his wife and son and then committed suicide in a class room in a school at Downey yesterday; Robert, the son who was shot down by his father, Vernon, who escaped bullets by running and Mrs. Eleanor Blythe, shot and killed by her husband, the result of the filing of a divorce action in the superior court in Orange county Wednesday morning.

C. OF C. BOARD DECLINES TO BACK MATZEN

Following the reading of a report submitted by a special investigating committee, the board of directors of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, meeting in special session this morning, voted to deny financial aid in opening the woolen mills plant on Washington avenue at the Santa Fe tracks.

The board of directors adopted a resolution which stated, "the report made by the special committee appointed to investigate and analyze the financial set-up of the plan offered by George Matzen for purchase and operation of the woolen mills is not such as to justify this board to recommend to the citizens of Santa Ana such financial support as Matzen requires."

The committee appointed consisted of three bankers, Frank Was, Alex Brownridge and Ed McFadden, who investigated the matter.

Matzen, who formerly operated a woolen mills in Seattle, Washington, had informed directors that he was ready to open the plant if enough capital could be guaranteed him for the payroll until money from goods manufactured and sold started coming in.

Events happened faster than the eye could record. From stories of eye witnesses pieced together later, it appeared that just as Mr. Roosevelt concluded speaking, Zangara, who had been standing, stooped, some 35 feet from Mr. Roosevelt's car, suddenly straightened and pulled a pistol from his pocket.

Someone near him screamed, Mrs. M. J. Cross of Miami, standing beside him, saw the gun and tried to grasp it. Zangara stood upon a chair, Mrs. Cross leaped for his gun hand. Zangara fired.

Mayor Cermak fell to his knees. A secret service man leaped to protect Mr. Roosevelt. The driver of the car, his presence of mind, unshaken, slipped the machine in to gear and almost before the crowd realized what was happening, started away.

Mr. Roosevelt waved his hand to show he was unhurt. He seemed calm. He did not then know that anyone had been injured.

Detectives and secret service men leaped upon Zangara as he stood with the still-hot gun in his hand. The crowd surged around. There were cries of "lynch him." Officers surrounded Zangara. They led him to an automobile, and hurried to the Miami jail.

Taken To Hospital
Mayor Cermak was lifted into Mr. Roosevelt's car, which left at once behind the sirens of police motorcycles. Mr. Roosevelt felt the Chicago mayor's pulse and comforted him on the way to the hospital. The other injured were taken to the hospital in another car from the Roosevelt parade.

From the hospital, Mr. Roosevelt was driven to the Florida East Coast railway yards, where his special train was waiting. As soon as he learned that Cermak's injuries were critical, however, Mr. Roosevelt cancelled his plans to leave for the north, and returned to the hospital.

"I'm glad it was me, not you," Mayor Cermak told Mr. Roosevelt.

When Dr. Blythe was served with the divorce papers here yesterday morning, he is believed to have immediately armed himself, gone to Francis Willard Junior High school, where he took his oldest son from school, telling him that they were going to Downey to see "Bobby," Robert, 8, had left Santa Ana Monday with his mother when Mrs. Blythe decided to leave her husband, and just prior to the filing of the divorce action. ## PRESIDENT-ELECT BARELY ESCAPES DEATH WHEN HE IS FIRED ON BY CRAZED MAN

Vincent Astor's yacht, Nourmahal, when the president-elect called at 7 p. m. yesterday after a 10 day cruise of southern waters, resting in preparation for the ardors of the presidency. Jovial, tanned, appearing fit in every way, he received newspapermen to discuss his trip, and conferred briefly with intimate advisers.

Then he left the yacht to accept the formal welcome of Miami officials and to drive in a motor parade to Bay Front Park, at the end of Flagler street, the principal business thoroughfare of the city.

A crowd of thousands waited there—Miami folk, residents of neighboring Florida cities who came to cheer the incoming chief executive, tourists from all parts of the country.

Six Shots Fired
Mr. Roosevelt spoke, briefly from the rear of an open automobile. As he concluded and the crowd broke into waves of cheers, Mr. Roosevelt leaned over and shook hands with Mayor Cermak, who was standing on the running board of the car. Then the president-elect sat down abruptly—and at that moment six shots spread panic through the throng.

Events happened faster than the eye could record. From stories of eye witnesses pieced together later, it appeared that just as Mr. Roosevelt concluded speaking, Zangara, who had been standing, stooped, some 35 feet from Mr. Roosevelt's car, suddenly straightened and pulled a pistol from his pocket.

Someone near him screamed, Mrs. M. J. Cross of Miami, standing beside him, saw the gun and tried to grasp it. Zangara stood upon a chair, Mrs. Cross leaped for his gun hand. Zangara fired.

Mayor Cermak fell to his knees. A secret service man leaped to protect Mr. Roosevelt. The driver of the car, his presence of mind, unshaken, slipped the machine in to gear and almost before the crowd realized what was happening, started away.

Mr. Roosevelt waved his hand to show he was unhurt. He seemed calm. He did not then know that anyone had been injured.

Detectives and secret service men leaped upon Zangara as he stood with the still-hot gun in his hand. The crowd surged around. There were cries of "lynch him." Officers surrounded Zangara. They led him to an automobile, and hurried to the Miami jail.

Taken To Hospital
Mayor Cermak was lifted into Mr. Roosevelt's car, which left at once behind the sirens of police motorcycles. Mr. Roosevelt felt the Chicago mayor's pulse and comforted him on the way to the hospital. The other injured were taken to the hospital in another car from the Roosevelt parade.

From the hospital, Mr. Roosevelt was driven to the Florida East Coast railway yards, where his special train was waiting. As soon as he learned that Cermak's injuries were critical, however, Mr. Roosevelt cancelled his plans to leave for the north, and returned to the hospital.

"I'm glad it was me, not you," Mayor Cermak told Mr. Roosevelt.

When Dr. Blythe was served with the divorce papers here yesterday morning, he is believed to have immediately armed himself, gone to Francis Willard Junior High school, where he took his oldest son from school, telling him that they were going to Downey to see "Bobby," Robert, 8, had left Santa Ana Monday with his mother when Mrs. Blythe decided to leave her husband, and just prior to the filing of the divorce action. "We'll see whether your mother or I get Bobby," Vernon is reported to have told authorities after the shooting.

He said he knew something was going to happen, "because papa was awfully mad." It was his knowledge of his father's wrath which probably saved his life.

Arriving at the school house, Vernon was ordered to remain in the car and Dr. Blythe went to the front door of the building where he was met by Mrs. Edith Unsworth, the teacher. He asked to come in, to witness the children at work. Admitted, he was given a seat at the rear of the class room, which was near his wife and son. Mrs. Blythe was sitting directly behind her son's desk.

Dr. Blythe sat there for a few moments and seemed interested in the work going on. Then as the teacher turned her back, he stood up, walked to within a few feet of Mrs. Blythe, whipped out an old-fashioned .41 calibre revolver and fired, the bullet striking his wife in the back of the head. She fell forward, instantly killed. Another shot rang out, and little Bobby slipped down in his seat. He had been struck in the head too and his death also was immediate.

Mad Scene
Dr. Blythe then started out of the school room. Children were screaming, several jumped from windows and the entire class room was a scene of bedlam. He reached the door and was met there by W. C. Metcalf, secretary of the school board which was holding a meeting in another room when the shooting started. Metcalf said he was menaced by the pistol and thought for a moment that Dr. Blythe would fire at him.

80,000 CHINESE TO OPPOSE JAP DRIVE

CHANCHUN, Manchuria, Feb. 16.—(UP)—Eighty thousand Chinese troops were being concentrated today in eastern Jehol province in anticipation of the Japanese drive to annex the province to Manchuria.

Inside, detectives were drawing from the Italian bricklayer a story of hatred of all kings and presidents, and of all the rich and powerful; a story, as well, of a "sore stomach" which he indicated had driven him to desire to kill Mr. Roosevelt.

He told how he had bought the pistol he used only a few hours before the attack. He had been here for two months, hoping his stomach would improve, but it had not grown better, police quoted him as saying.

Zangara said, also, that he had tried 10 years ago to assassinate King Victor Emmanuel of Italy. Police questioned him closely about this and about other possible attacks he might have made on prominent persons.

His story of an attack on the Italian ruler was not borne out by records. Not since 1911, according to the records, has an attempt been made upon Victor Emmanuel. The assailant then was captured, and was released from prison in 1928; but since Zangara said he was only 33, it seemed he could not have been involved.

Early today Valenti, Zangara's roommate, was picked up on a charge of suspicion of being an accomplice. Police had not filed a formal charge against Zangara.

Clippings Found
In the room occupied by the two, and in pockets of their suits, were found clippings from Miami newspapers about the Roosevelt visit, and one clipping about the assassination of President McKinley in 1901. Not since McKinley was attacked has any president or president-elect of the United States been fired upon, though former President Theodore Roosevelt, distant cousin of the president-elect, in 1912 was wounded by gunfire in Milwaukee while campaigning for the presidency.

At one time in the night-long ordeal of questioning it was reported Zangara had said he bought the pistol to kill President Hoover, and only decided to try to assassinate Mr. Roosevelt because he happened to be here.

When newspapermen and photographers were allowed to see Zangara midway through the examination, he had been stripped of his clothing.

The exact part Valenti may have played was uncertain. One version was that he carried a camera to Bay Front park, and with its aid was able to lead Zangara through the police lines established to protect Mr. Roosevelt.

When Dr. Blythe was served with the divorce papers here yesterday morning, he is believed to have immediately armed himself, gone to Francis Willard Junior High school, where he took his oldest son from school, telling him that they were going to Downey to see "Bobby," Robert, 8, had left Santa Ana Monday with his mother when Mrs. Blythe decided to leave her husband, and just prior to the filing of the divorce action. ## OWEN D. YOUNG STUDENTS GIVE IS CALLED IN BLOOD TO SAVE SENATE PROBE ILL CLASSMATE

Frank Baker, honor student, junior in the Anaheim Union High school, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Baker of 755 North Claudina street, Anaheim, where the father is employed as gardener, was given his third blood transfusion this morning in treating a serious case of anemia.

Principal J. A. Claves of the high school asked for volunteers Monday for transfusion and 24 boys eagerly made their offers. Out of that number three were chosen by Dr. Milo K. Tedstrom and Dr. H. A. Johnson. There was 500 c. c. of blood taken from Joe Badger for young Baker Monday afternoon.

The second transfusion was given by Glenn Schumacher on Tuesday and the one today by Robert Van Wagoner. After the second transfusion a sharp reaction set in and early this morning doctors were awaiting a favorable moment to give the transfusion.

Young Baker developed anemia after a serious case of influenza he had last fall. One month ago he dropped out of school, being too ill to continue with his studies.

Youths Jailed For Theft of Supplies
Two 20-year old youths, Melvin Neff and Edwin Carbajal, of La Habra, were booked at the county jail last night on burglary charges after they are asserted to have been caught in the act of robbing the supply house of the sheep herders on the Murphy lease, near La Habra, Wednesday.

The building had been robbed three times in the past several weeks, and Constable William Tremaine, of Brea, who made the arrests was watching at the time, it was reported.

COMPROMISE IS BEING SOUGHT AS SOLUTION

Possibility of an auction sale of the huge Bastanchury ranch properties tomorrow loomed today as a compromise conference was scheduled to be held this afternoon in the office of Ben Tarver, referee in bankruptcy, it was learned today. The compromise petition which has been filed in Judge Tarver's court concerns the 2600 acres in the home ranch, near Fullerton. Of the $1,500,000 original bond issue against the huge ranch property, there is still outstanding $1,700,000, claims for which are sought by the Bank of America National Trust and Savings company, acting for the bondholders, according to Carl Cowles, attorney for the trustee, Ashby Turner. If there is no objection to the compromise agreement and petition, it is possible that Judge Tarver will allow the auction sale tomorrow. Auction sales are usually held on the steps of the courthouse. However, the Standard Oil company, which holds a second trust deed amounting to about $700,000 against the property, objected to original proceedings and agreements and it is in an attempt to satisfy this claim and the claims of the general creditors, represented by Ashby Turner, trustee, that the conference was scheduled for today. Bondholders were attempting to foreclose on the property but this action was held off by Turner through restraining orders. Turner was said to be planning an appeal to the United States supreme court when the present compromise agreement was suggested. Under terms of the agreement, the trustee would receive $10,000 in cash, 35 acres of land in the home ranch, and an option for 160 more acres, to run for two years. This agreement will be made possible, it was said, if the bondholders buy in the property. In case they do not buy it in, an alternate agreement whereby the trustee would receive $35,000 in cash may be effected. Plans for drilling for oil on the property are under consideration in case the compromise agreement is made effective, according to authoritative reports.

BELIEVE SECOND TRAIN BANDIT WAS WOUNDED

Clinton C. Coughlan, 45, Los Angeles box car thief, was shot and killed on the night of February 14, while he and three unidentified persons were robbing a Santa Fe railroad box car, the shot having been fired by W. A. Thomas, special agent for the railroad, a coroner's jury determined after an inquest over the body at the Smith and Tuthill funeral parlors today.

Thomas was exonerated from blame in connection with the shooting, it being in line of duty, the jury reported.

That at least one other of the four bandits who broke into the merchandise car to rob it of bales of cigarettes, was shot, was brought out at the coroner's inquest today when Owen Fitzpatrick, Occidente man, a hobo, who was riding on the train at the time, testified that during the shooting he saw one man fall, groan and pull himself on his hands and knees to a cypress grove some 30 feet from the railroad right-of-way.

The body of Coughlan was found 10 feet from the right-of-way. A bullet had pierced his heart and it would have been impossible for him to have been the man Fitzpatrick said he saw, or the man who was seen running away. This wounded bandit, with the other two are believed to have escaped in a waiting automobile, tracks of which were found close to the scene of the shooting and off the main highway. Officers were not able to find any traces of blood, however.

The body of Coughlan was positively identified by his former wife, Mrs. Madeline Coughlan, of Los Angeles, who appeared at the inquest to testify after she had read accounts of the shooting in the papers.

She declared that she had married Coughlan 25 years ago, had been divorced from him for three years. He was a native of San Francisco, she said, and was a former railroad employee. She testified that she saw him in Los Angeles.

Funeral services for the dead robber will be held at the Smith and Tuthill funeral parlors at 10 a. m. tomorrow, and burial will be made in Fairhaven cemetery.

The seal on the box car which was broken open by the thieves also was introduced into the evidence after testimony that it was taken from the dead man's pockets. Its number corresponded with the number taken officially by the railroad company when the car left Los Angeles.

POSSIBILITY OF FURTHER CUTS SEEN BY AUDITOR; GIVES FIGURES ON BONDS

Further cuts in salaries of city employees may be necessary in the future to make necessary reduction in city operating costs, according to City Auditor Lloyd Banks, who spoke before members of the Kiwanis club yesterday afternoon regarding the financial situation of the city.

During the past year salaries and wages of city employees have been cut 18 per cent, effecting a saving of $45,000, he said. Since 1931 the city council has reduced expenditures by $130,000, he asserted. "We have been notified by the county assessor that a cut of 10 per cent in assessed valuations will be made in 1933-34," the speaker declared. "This will make it necessary to make an additional cut in operating expenses of the city of $30,000 to keep the same rate. Whether or not we are able to keep the same tax rate in effect depends on the amount of delinquent taxes covering the fiscal year 1932-33.

"The grand total of all improvements under various acts in Santa Ana, including all paving, sewers, curbs and ornamental street lights, is $4,832,459, about half of which was paid for in cash when work was started.

Bonds Paying Out. "Under the 1915 street improvement bonds act, a total of $1,442,344 was outstanding on January 1, 1931. On July 1, 1932, nineteen districts will have paid out and district owners in these districts will have $23,592 less to pay in taxes. Next year 24 districts pay out, and during the next two years 74 districts, or half the total districts, will have paid out. This means that taxes on property owners in these districts will be reduced $103,000 on special assessments. From that time on, each year about 15 districts will pay out until 1942 when the total will be paid.

The bonded indebtedness of Santa Ana is one of the lowest in the nation, even lower than many smaller cities. Up to the present time the city has met all obligations except on 11 districts under the 1915 act, when $20,000 which was due on July 2, 1932, was not paid. This is a secondary obligation and does not reflect on the general obligations of the city. The last general bond issue was in 1926. Since that time the city has spent $238,300 on permanent improvements out of operating funds, which in the past has been done by bond issues.

"Total special assessments in the city amount to about as much as general taxes. In the fiscal year, 1932-33 general taxes were $366,000, while special assessments amounted to $354,000.

Other Revenues Drop "Revenues outside of taxes amount to 40 per cent of the city revenue. This revenue decreased from $309,000 to $222,000 in the fiscal year which ends next June 30, a reduction of 30 per cent. This makes it necessary to cut operating expenses at least that amount or $87,000, even if there is no decrease for the taxpayer."

This statement was given as explanation of how reports are made of large decreases in budgets at the time they are made, yet the tax until remains about the same. He went on to say: "There is also a tax delinquency of from 8 to 10 per cent, which means a decrease in revenue of $23,000, so even if the budget is reduced $100,000, it still leaves the taxpayer paying the same amount as for the previous year.

"Fixed charges represent about half the total expenditures. We have now come to the point where further reductions, if made, must be on the service rendered in order to meet the demand for lower rates."

Angelo three or four days before his death, at which time he came to her home, and asked her for money. She said she borrowed 50 cents and gave it to him. She testified that he seemed blue and down hearted at the time.

Through the sheriff's office, the police record of Coughlan was read into the coroner's record. It showed that he had been arrested five times, from 1921 to 1925, the last time he having been sent to Leavenworth prison for theft of interstate commerce. He was later transferred to the Nevada state penitentiary and was paroled from there on April 4, 1928.

The seal on the box car which was broken open by the thieves also was introduced into the evidence after testimony that it was taken from the dead man's pockets. Its number corresponded with the number taken officially by the railroad company when the car left Los Angeles.

Funeral services for the dead robber will be held at the Smith and Tuthill funeral parlors at 10 a. m. tomorrow, and burial will be made in Fairhaven cemetery.

WOMAN SUES ANAHEIM BANK; CHARGES USURY

Charges that the Anaheim First National bank and Ben Baxter, vice president of the institution, were guilty of charging usurious interest on a loan were contained in a civil suit filed in superior court this morning.

The suit was filed by Media M. Jeffery against the bank and its vice president. In her complaint Mrs. Jeffery alleged that the banking firm had charged $250 as a premium above the legal rate of 8 per cent interest, on a loan of $1250.

The loan, according to Mrs. Jeffery was negotiated with the bank in her behalf by Fred C. Halmos, Guy Rowan, and Paul Friedell acting as her agents. The $1250 was to be repaid in six months and was to bear interest at the rate of 8 per cent, the interest to be paid quarterly and the principal at the date of expiration of the loan.

To guarantee payment of the loan Mrs. Jeffery alleged that she deposited five city of Los Angeles improvement bonds worth a total of $2975.05. The loan she charges was made through an unlawful agreement with her agent that she was to pay $250 as a premium. This agreement, she charges, was not authorized by her.

The loan was for $1250 but she received only $1000 she charges in her suit. The other $250 was retained by the bank, according to her allegation. During the life of the loan her agents paid to the bank, on behalf of Mrs. Jeffery a total of $325 on the principal leaving a balance of $825 due under terms of the loan. On October 16, 1932, she charges she paid $21.09 as interest and again on February 4, last, she paid $21.13 as interest. On the same date she paid the remaining $825 due on the principal.

She is demanding judgment for the $250 allegedly paid as premium above the legal rate of interest, a total of $42.22 paid as interest and the amount trebled as penalty for usury making a total judgment of $876.66 sought.

Another trick is the advertising illusion that one cigarette can be "purer" than another. EXPLANATION: All popular cigarettes are made under sanitary conditions, by modern machinery. All use a good cigarette paper. All are pure. The difference shows up in the quality of tobacco used. Choice, ripe tobaccos are less irritating, therefore milder than inferior, raw tobaccos. Camels use the finest, choicest tobaccos, ripe and mellow. It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, more expensive tobaccos than any other popular brand. ## Members Of Three Farm Centers Hear Legislators

ASSEMBLYMAN, SENATOR TALK ON NEW BILLS

ORANGE, Feb. 16.—N. T. Edwards, state senator, was the principal speaker when members of the Tustin, the Foothill and the West Orange farm centers met at the Intermediate school last night. C. A. Palmer, president of the Foothill farm center, presided.

Senator Edwards outlined the situation which faces legislators in their efforts to reduce the state expenses in order to relieve tax payers and declared that the state deficit had been due chiefly to the fact that the state income from public utility taxes had decreased owing to the decrease in revenue of these concerns. The utilities pay a state tax based on the gross income derived, he brought out.

The speaker compared the government with a great corporation and (then) said to the directors who the stockholders, or tax payers, but rather to reduce the expenses of the workings of the organization.

Edwards pointed out that many of the proposed measures for the reduction of the taxes will be in the power of the people to decide as they will be in the form of constitutional amendments which must be voted on at special elections. Unless a gross tax is levied, the deficit probably will be met as an ad valorem tax, he said.

Edwards declared he did not believe that the gasoline tax fund should be used for any other purpose than for the highways and he explained that at the time the highways were built, there was no tax on gasoline. He brought out that funds for bonds and redemptions for highway improvements were taken from the general fund and the proposal had been made by the governor to take the sum of $8,778,750 from the gasoline tax and place it back in the general fund.

Assemblyman James Utt spoke on the Riley tax bill as a special relief to farmers and small town property owners. He urged the study of the bill which, he said, would be based on gross sales, purchases and incomes.

Before the program, Ralph McFadden, president of the Orange county farm bureau, spoke briefly. Felton Browning gave a director's report. Browning called attention to the school survey made last year by the farm bureau and said this survey is to be enlarged enabling school boards to pick out items of expenditures for reduction. He said the farm bureau tax committee still believed that the road tax should be reduced from 40 to 10 cents.

Mr. Browning stated that the citrus committee is still engaged in working on a pro rate plan and hope to achieve a plan which will create a stabilized market.

The program closed with "The Womanless Wedding," a comedy, given by members of the West Orange farm center.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, or laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. You bloat up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely. But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Recent a substitute, 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

PRESIDENTS OF REPORT DOLLAR J. C. CLASSES DAY EVENT IS ARE ELECTED SUCCESSFUL

William McDaniels and William Campbell will serve as presidents of their respective freshmen and sophomore classes at Santa Ana Junior college, as a result of second semester elections held yesterday.

Each candidate was competing with three classmates, all of whom lost out in the first ballot. There was not a majority, however, in the race for three offices, and another balloting will be necessary.

Miss Evelyn Fairley was chosen vice president of the sophomore class; Hazel Spencer, treasurer.

Miss Marian Brownbridge was named treasurer of the freshmen class.

Three candidates—Miss Alta Fisher, Raymond Hoar and Walter Workman—will vie for the freshmen vice presidency in the second election next week. Miss Dorothy Ensign and Miss Pauline Flint are still in the race for secretary of the underclassmen.

Miss Doris Tedford and Gene Hall are competing for the position of sophomore class secretary.

Definite plans for holding more Dollar Days in Santa Ana were being made today following the success of Dollar Day yesterday, staged by the Santa Ana Merchants association in cooperation with all other local merchants.

There is no question in the minds of leading merchants concerning the great success of Dollar Day, according to a statement made today by Walter Swanberger, president of the association.

James N. Harding, past president, declared that while there were a few shops that did not fare so well, a careful survey of the stores on Fourth and Main streets revealed that 85 per cent of the stores did an exceptional business yesterday.

One of the largest stores in the city had a business day "much like a good old Christmas day," it was stated. Women's specialty shops and men's clothing stores were favored by shoppers, according to the results of the survey.

The board of directors of the Merchants association will meet next Tuesday to make plans for a spring buying jubilee to be staged either late in March or early April.

Manager A. Cavalli said today. He announced that plans are being made to stage four Dollar Days this year.

During the day the Du Bois Furniture store sold merchandise which is to be sent to Knoxville, Tennessee. This was believed to be the record for a "long distance" sale for the day.

DIRECTORS OF C. OF C. FROWN ON LAND GIFT

NEWPORT BEACH, Feb. 16. — Directors of the Newport Harbor Chamber of Commerce are opposed to any state park proposal whereby the city of Newport Beach would make a gift of land to the state, while private concerns would be paid for their land.

The local chamber directors by resolution so expressed themselves at a meeting yesterday at the American Legion clubhouse, when a state park proposal was discussed. Under this proposal, the city would have given land on the north side of the bay, while private owners of a mile of beach frontage west of the city would have been paid out of the state park fund.

Harry Welch, secretary of the Orange County Coast association, had spoken of the project at a meeting of the Newport Harbor Service club, which immediately preceded the chamber meeting, and at which the chamber directors were present. He had also spoken at several other meetings here recently.

Several of the directors doubted whether a state park would be desirable on the land between the Coast highway and the bay now owned by the city under any circumstances, but even so they said they would not favor the city's making a free gift involving a sale in some other area at what some of them described as a high price.

Harry H. Williamson suggested that, as the ocean frontage in question is in county territory, the state park department and the county might make a deal. The city, he pointed out, now has more than five miles of ocean frontage within the city limits, used by the public.

Several proposed legislative bills now up at Sacramento were laid on the table for future reference.

EIGHT ESCAPED UNHURT FROM THIS!

A few minutes before fire and explosion of gas ruined this transport plane, it had caught fire over Delano, Cal. Displaying iron nerve, Pilot Eddie Belandi (inset) turned toward the Bakersfield, Cal., airport and while his co-pilot, Lynn Birkenkamp, calmed the six passengers, Belandi landed the blazing ship. One passenger was slightly burned about face and hands in escaping from the ship, which a moment later exploded.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG — News Behind the News —

WASHINGTON By Paul Mallon

VETERANS

You would do well to keep an antidote handy for all those yarns you are being served about cutting veterans' expenditures. The boys have one policy for publication and another underneath.

That does not appear to apply to Mr. Roosevelt or Mr. Garner. There is conclusive evidence that they are seeking a way to stop payments to those who have jobs. Everything points so far to their sincerity. There is no one in the know here who believes they will be successful.

When congressmen came back fresh from the people in November a cut might have been pushed through. Something in the Washington atmosphere made them change their minds. Right now about 90 per cent in Congress think it would be political folly to cut the veterans a nickel.

Daily in both houses someone arises to demand a reduction. That does not mean anything. You never see anyone introducing an amendment proposing a fixed cut. Instead you see the house quietly passing an actual increase of $13,000,000 for veterans' allowances.

There is no reason to suspect yet that the new congress will be much different. The prospect now is Mr. Roosevelt will ardently recommend reductions to congress and that congress will ardently avoid taking any decisive action.

ECONOMIES

How those things work out is well illustrated by what happened last week during the economy wave.

The senate passed a makeshift economy provision. It would have saved a two hundred million dollar drop in the budget. Garner made a real economy proposal. He wanted to give Mr. Roosevelt power enough to do the things that everyone now realizes congress has not the courage to do.

He was engulfed by the howls that went up from breast beaters. They told him it would have been unconstitutional. It would. The question was whether you wanted to wink at the Constitution and have real economies or wink at the economies and have the Constitution.

The boys got down to the fighting stage about it. Senator Byrnes had a session with Garner which was hot and heavy. Byrnes tried to tell Garner what he could do. That is always a bad attitude in dealing with Garner.

Senate progressives let it be known in the cloakrooms they would filibuster any effort to give the president dictatorial powers. It was their first break with the Roosevelt clan. President Hoover slipped the word to Republican Leader Snell that he would veto the Garner idea. Attorney General Mitchell advised it.

That left everyone just where they started.

The Roosevelt Warwick in all this economy business is Swager Shirley. He has worked out a government reorganization program with Senator Byrnes and Representative Douglas. After the blowup he started playing with the idea of giving the president the power to raise and lower expenses along the lines of the flexible tariff.

His relentless private activities indicated clearly that Mr. Roosevelt will pull every possible wire to get as much power as he can.

R. F. C.

Al Smith raised more Cain with the R. F. C. when he was here than anyone heard about. A typical scene was staged in his hotel room. In a bathrobe he lectured the counsel of the Corporation for hours on the futility of

There has been important buying of American rail stocks from Dutch sources lately. The Dutch are supposed to be smart.

SMITH

Al Smith's visit to the R.F.C. last week on behalf of several construction loans will not be his last appearance in that capacity. He has been asked to act as go-between by several prospective applicants who find the R.F.C. difficult to approach. Smith will work closely with Senator Wagner and will push hard for loans that mean jobs.

TAMMANY

Farley's plan to shut Curry out of the important New York Federal patronage—with special reference to the U. S. Attorney for New York—will not be taken lying down. Curry will decline to accept Farley's authority and will take his case direct to Roosevelt for a showdown. Meanwhile a plan is afoot to carry the local battle into the national arena.

Curry is working on an alliance with Mayor Cermak of Chicago (whose machine controls the whole Illinois Democracy) and Governor Ely of Massachusetts. The idea would be to create a Congressional bloc of New York, Illinois and Massachusetts Democrats whose responsiveness to Roosevelt's legislative policies would depend on Farley's willingness to play ball with the leaders on patronage. It would be a direct answer to Farley's threat of the patronage whip.

TRUCKS

American oil companies are beginning to hand out good news to truck manufacturers. So far in February four companies alone have placed orders for two million dollars worth of trucks.

POLAND

Students of European currencies report that Poland's gold supply being only thirty-four per cent of the National Fund, a default of the zloty is probably due in the course of the next eight months. Germany is well aware of this situation.

ITALY

New Yorkers who study Italy's foreign policy closely believe Mussolini will avoid any change in Jugo-Slavia which might bring about a restoration of the old Austrian realm. Uniting in a common cause with Germany without regard to Italian policies is a Jugo-Slavian threat of wide implications.

JAPAN

Bank specialists in Japanese financing are watching the apparently innocent "National Defense Study League." These are being organized throughout Japan with the intention of reaching 20,000,000 young people. The movement represents a really desperate attempt by the military to combat radicalism and inculcate instead the militaristic spirit. The Government is seriously alarmed by the 8000 young people who were arrested as "communists" during the past year.

Young Girl In Role Of Heroine

Quick thinking and action on the part of Louise Bennett, 11, last night saved her father from possible serious burns.

Her father, R. T. Bennett, 202 North Parton street, was standing near an open gas heater fire last night when the bathrobe he was wearing burst into flames.

The young girl immediately seized a blanket and wrapped it around the burning robe, extinguishing the flames.

FIRST ANNUAL CHURCH NIGHT HUGE SUCCESS

The first of the Annual Church Night programs, held last night at the First Methodist church, proved a great success, according to church leaders, with more than 500 present at the banquet which was served prior to the meeting.

Many came after the dinner, jamming the auditorium and filling the classrooms to overflowing. Church officials expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the interest evinced. The programs will continue weekly until April 5.

Mrs. Jennie Tiesman was in charge of one of the classes last night, said to be one of the most interesting offered. In accordance with her program, she discussed international problems. In the course of her talk she declared that Japan is fighting for equality among the nations of the world, and for security for her people.

Program by Girls Octet Presented For Breakfasters

Entertainment for the meeting of the Orange County Breakfast club at Santa Ana, held this morning in the Green Cat cafe, was furnished by the Santa Ana High school girls' octet, directed by Theo Schwaiger.

The octet presented a group of songs, accompanied by Ray Baker at the piano, which were warmly received. Members are Jeanne Reinhardt, Lucille Schieber, Agnes Brady, Bonnie Hamilton, Elizabeth Garlack, Elva Ringland, Trudis Johnson and Winifred Triplett. Mirth and hilarity prevailed while C. F. Skirven delivered a serio-comic address on "Technocratic Technicalities."

President Claude McDowell presided at the meeting.

Barney Koster, charter member of the club, was absent for the first time in three years today because of illness.

REPORT OF PHONE CHANGE IS DENIED

Speculation, based on a news-dispatch from San Francisco yesterday under which it was believed that changes possibly involving installation of a dial type phone system were to be made here, was found to be groundless today as result of a statement by Earl Morrow, district manager for the Southern California Telephone company, who said,

"With reference to the press service article which appeared in Santa Ana Register, February 15, headed 'Dial Phones to Be Installed Here?' we have no plans for fundamental changes in Santa Ana telephone service."

The article to which Morrow referred was a dispatch from San Francisco stating that the company had advised the state railroad commission it was ready to install a "complete and modern" system of communication in Santa Ana.

Plans Ordered For Huntington Beach Camp Ground

BUSINESS MEN. LEGION BACK NEW PROJECT

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Feb. 16.—The council last night was addressed by Warren J. Bristol, chairman of the beach committee of the chamber of commerce; Verne Austin, commander of the American Legion, and Leo Chambers, representing the Business Men's association, urging the construction of a beach camp ground and the permitting of camping on the beach. T. B. Talbot, president of the chamber of commerce, also made a talk in favor of permitting beach camping. W. S. Ebert and R. G. Lindley also spoke in favor of the plan.

Mayor Elson G. Conrad, with the consent of the council, instructed Harry Overmeyer, city engineer, to prepare plans and specifications for the camp ground and estimate of cost of equipment. Mayor Conrad asked that two estimates be made, one for the area between Second and First streets and one for the area between Third and First streets. The report will be made at the next meeting of the council.

Speakers discussing the matter before the council urged that a nominal charge be made for camping on the beach. W. S. Ebert, owner of Sea Breeze auto camp on the Coast highway near the beach, made a written offer to lease the proposed beach camp ground and operate it on such terms as might be arranged, provided the city desired to have the beach camp operated as a private project rather than a municipal camp ground.

The Business Men's association in a letter to the council asked that a license be charged out-of-town merchants and solicitors and that a license be charged on trucks of out-of-town business enterprises operating in the city. Mayor Conrad stated that the new license ordinance now pending before the council would take care of the request of the Business Men's association, meeting the requirements asked in the letter.

C. R. Furr, city clerk, submitted to the council a proposal from a bonding company to exchange $21,000 in Huntington bonds for a like sum in Beverly Hills bonds held by the city. The Huntington Beach bonds carry 6 per cent and the Beverly Hills bonds carry 4 1/2 per cent interest. The city clerk pointed out that the city could save $3000 by the exchange, which would be represented in the saving in interest. Furr also pointed out that the city bonds could be retired by the city and thus save one year's tax levy of five mills for the taxpayers. He said the bonding company would earn its profit on commission through the fact that the Beverly Hills bonds had a higher premium than the Huntington Beach bonds, although the bonds of this city bring a premium.

The Beverly Hills bonds were purchased with surplus accumulated for the purpose of retiring Huntington Beach bonds. The council on motion of Councilman Chris H. King, chairman of the finance committee, authorized the city clerk to consummate the transaction under the supervision and with the approval of City Attorney Ray H. Overacker.

The council adopted on first reading an ordinance providing for payment of delinquent taxes under the installment plan, patterned after the state law.

MORATORIUM ON DEBTS OF UNEMPLOYED REQUESTED IN RESOLUTION OF MESA GROUP

COSTA MESA, Feb. 16.—Fifty citizens of the Newport harbor district met at the bank building Tuesday evening and formed an organization to be known as the Citizens' Protective league.

Clein Knox was elected temporary chairman and Mrs. J. Brooks, secretary. R. Weeks gave a talk on cooperation and stated that there was a need for organization for protection.

The following committee on arrangements was appointed by the chair: William McCoy, R. L. Bell, N. S. Warner, W. F. Holt and J. Carlyle. Carlyle was appointed committee chairman and to arrange for a mass meeting to be held in the grammar school auditorium Tuesday evening with R. Weeks as speaker.

A resolution adopted by the group stated, "We declare that a crisis does now exist for which our laws and rules of society make no provision and that we hereby respectfully request a moratorium of all debts owned by persons who are unemployed or only employed part time until such time as economic conditions can be adjusted to make the payment of debts physically possible."

"This is expected to apply to gas and electric bills hereafter made where the economy is practiced on the part of the user and no unnecessary waste practiced."

"Property owners whose tenants are unemployed or become unemployed are urged to request not to evict during this depression or crisis."

"We ask that all land not leased or rented be donated by the owner to the relief of suffering humanity that food may be raised for the coming winter."

The secretary was instructed to send a letter to Postmaster Braxton S. Norton, asking that official to forward it to the proper authorities, asking that there be no further delay in approving a site for the Laguna Beach post office.

Negotiations for a new lease at the present site on Laguna avenue having failed of favorable action, the letter will say that the chamber would like to have the matter settled before the summer rush comes.

I. H. Shankle was named chairman of a "glad hand" committee. The assistant secretary will visit all of the local business men and seek to increase the membership.

The whole of the townsite has been leased by the company, and after spudding in the tool pusher, Bruce Stanford, expects to complete the well in five or six months. A. J. Bell, of Los Angeles, is president of the company. Stanford was formerly in charge of Standard Oil company work here.

If the well proves successful, the company will immediately drill four other holes in the lease. After erection of the derrick, three towers of six men each will be employed and will be chosen from among local people.

The mixed class clubs of the grammar school presented a garden play, "The Princess' Dream," a fantasy in pantomime in which Bobbydine Mason was the princess and James Griffith the gypsy minstrel. Miss Katherine Yates, Miss Ruby Thorpe and Miss Cecile Templeman, teachers, directed the play, the latter at the piano. Rose and Charles Doty appeared in a gypsy dance. Jose also giving a tap dance. The glee clubs sang while six of their members gave a woodland dance, the six being Wilma Williams, Betty June Grant, Evelyn Strickland Betty Anderson, Frances Smith and Juanita Danilely.

Learning that Barry and Steve are on vacation at Holiday Island, the girls leave their boat at Port of Spain. There they meet Bud who takes them to Holiday Island. Barry and Steve are cordial but greet lack warmly. Mona wishes she had not come. Barry does not ask for explanations and she cannot make them.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

CHAPTER XLII

The days drifted away. Long, sweet drowsy days followed by long, cool evenings. Mornings after early coffee, the four would go to the beach for a swim in the green-blue water that flooded the sand with transparent depths. Protected by the palm trees, they would rest on the sand, blinking at the glare, drinking the milk of fresh coconuts gathered by the inevitable native boys.

The girls rarely saw Bud. Ever on the alert, even in this drowsy heat, Bud was dashing for supplies in the boat, rising early and repairing to the section of the island set apart for the airport, swimming alone, his bronzed body graceful and swift in the leaping foam.

Bud ate any time, anywhere he happened to be from deliciously filled trays prepared by old Maria. Barry and Steve, in white linen and pith helmets, were frequently summoned to settle questions at the airport. Frequently, in the cool of the morning, they goaded. They would disappear immediately after the 11:30 luncheon, or "breakfast," as they called it, ostensibly to sleep but frequently to figure on paper, to discuss matters at the mine, to attend to correspondence.

The flamboyants about the house blossomed, covering the rear facade with a shower of petals at every gust of breeze. Holiday House, Mona found, was the only estate on the island and Holiday Island comprised 25 square miles. A fringe of native huts, close by but hidden in a tunnel of trees, accommodated the corps of servants.

"This place, here?" Barry repeated, in response to Mona's timid query. She still felt ill at ease with him and the conversation be-

BREA, Feb. 16.—The national and international work of Nazarene churches was related by Dr. J. B. Chapman, of Kansas City, one of the three general superintendents, when he spoke at the Nazarene church here Tuesday night. The Rev. Orval J. Neace, president of Pasadena college, spoke also, stressing the financial needs of that institution.

Several numbers were given by the Pasadena college quartet, comprising Earl Schultz, Lyle Prescott, Weldon Stone and Elwood Sanner.

CHAMBER ASKS ORDINANCE ON STREET NAMES

LAGUNA BEACH, Feb. 16.—Long delayed action by the city council in passing a street naming ordinance, resulted in a resolution being adopted by the Laguna Beach chamber of commerce Tuesday night in requesting that the resolution was moved by John matter be settled without delay.

Jehle, chairman of a street-naming committee appointed by the council several years ago.

Leo Wilson, a member of the fire department, urged that the street naming plan proposed by the John matter be made a law, declaring that the duplication of street names had caused confusion and delay in answering fire alarms.

John Reed, local manager for Raitt's dairy, and William A. Wolf, mining engineer, were elected as directors to fill the places made vacant by the resignations of Sumner Crosby and Abe W. Johnson Jr.

The secretary was instructed to send a letter to Postmaster Braxton S. Norton, asking that official to forward it to the proper authorities, asking that there be no further delay in approving a site for the Laguna Beach post office.

Negotiations for a new lease at the present site on Laguna avenue having failed of favorable action, the letter will say that the chamber would like to have the matter settled before the summer rush comes.

I. H. Shankle was named chairman of a "glad hand" committee. The assistant secretary will visit all of the local business men and seek to increase the membership.

INSURANCE FIRM ASKS PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS

L. G. Swales, long time resident of Santa Ana and prominent in business affairs of the city, has been named defendant in a suit filed in superior court by the Royal Indemnity Company for the recovery of $1628.52.

The amount sued for is alleged to be due the Royal Indemnity company and the Eagle Indemnity company, on an assigned claim, on insurance premiums paid Swales as agent of the companies but never turned over to the companies. The complaint lists 25 causes of action, 22 of which are allegations of premiums paid to Swales on behalf of the Royal Indemnity company but never turned over to the company. One cause of action is for recovery of a premium paid by the Santa Ana Country club as premium on a surety bond issued by the Eagle Indemnity company. Swales is alleged to have made the collection but has not turned it over to the company. Two causes of action grew out of compensation policies issued to Lutz and company and the Milson Clay Products company. The policies were issued with the understanding that refunds were to be made in the event salaries during the life of the policy did not equal the amount insured. Swales, it is alleged, collected his commission from the advance payments of premiums on the policy but has not reimbursed the company for his share of the refunds to the policy holders. He also is charged with withholding a premium due on a Workmen's Compensation and Employers' Liability policy issued to Swales and McFadden and later cancelled.

LOOKING UP

(A Column of Optimistic Comment on News of the Day)
By S. G. RUBINOW
of the University of California

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 16.—(UP)

—Flashes of optimism—Despite the pessimists, the feeling prevails in all quarters that the bottom has been reached, and that improvements are beginning.

Much constructive good is expected out of the governor's conference called by President-elect Roosevelt. Chief executives of 48 states working in harmony with the president of the United States can't help but get some action started on present problems.

Industrial leaders of the country are to meet with leaders in congress and discuss economic problems and their solutions. The conference is bound to help.

It is predicted that a vast employment program is to be launched by the incoming administration. Putting the unemployed to work on enterprises of value and service to the nation is not a delusion; neither is it charity. Rather must it be classed as profitable unemployment relief.

Financial writers say that commodity prices are moving upward. Economists predicted the rise in prices, basing their forecasts on analysis of previous depressions.

Stocks are gaining steadily though slowly. No one wants to see a return to frenzied sky-rocket levels, but everyone is pulling for a long, graduated rise upward.

Conditions in business are never static. Either they are up or down. There is never what might be called a state of equilibrium. Having gone down just about as far as they could go, conditions must now rise.

The movement against importation of goods produced in countries with depreciated currency, and low standards of living, is gaining ground. Maybe, if nothing else can be done, the United States can get on a basis of home production for home consumption and stay put.

Reports in bank clearances show an increase as compared to a year ago. Various industrial improvements are reported in press dispatches.

Farm relief legislation, looking toward improving the farmer's purchasing power, as the first step in national industrial recovery, is well on its way. It is anticipated that congress will either enact the domestic allotment plan or some similar measure.

One wonders why other states have not adopted the plan originated by California, of putting unemployed into state forest labor camps. In normal times, enough men could not be found for doing what is needed in the way of protecting our forests.

Part of Roosevelt's reconstruction program includes a forest improvement and reforestation project, as well as the development of power, manufacture of commercial fertilizers, highway construction, and many other things.

As Coolidge said, before he died, this is no time to fight or quarrel. This is the time to cooperate and pull together.

One thing is certain. Out of all this depression, suffering, and privation, a real golden era is coming.

MARKETS DIVISION QUARTERS CHANGED

SACRAMENTO, Calif. Feb. 16.—(UP)—Plans for the transfer to Sacramento of the division of markets and the division of market enforcement from San Francisco possibly by next July 1, were announced today by Dudley Moulton, director of the state department of agriculture.

Moulton said this action was in line with recent recommendations of the senate fact-finding committee, which suggested return of a number of state agencies to the state capital in the interests of economy.

Branch offices of the two divisions would be maintained in San Francisco under the new setup, Moulton said.

COUNCIL BUYS WATER PUMP FOR NEW WELL

The city council has awarded to the Byron-Jackson company of Los Angeles the contract for the purchase of a new 150 horsepower water pump to be used at the city's new well on Olive street, and at the same time ordered all bids received for a new tank for the same property, rejected, on the grounds that all were exorbitant.

Although the Byron-Jackson bid was not the lowest made for a pump, J. L. McBride, water commissioner, pointed out that taken over a period of years, which the pump is expected to work, the Byron-Jackson would be better suited for the purpose and more economical in the long run. The entire council agreed.

Checks were ordered returned to the bidders on the tank and the city will advertise again for bids. The low bid on this item was $1052.

The Byron-Jackson pump bid was $2942, f. o. b. Los Angeles. The low bid on the pump of $2438 was submitted by the Pomona Pump company.

Fire swept through historic St. Paul's Episcopal church, on California street between Steiner and Pierce yesterday destroying the rear half of the structure and threatening to spread to an adjoining block of frame buildings.

Starting in a frame addition, flames burned through the roof, part of which crashed down, carrying with it huge chandeliers and blazing timbers that turned the church into a roaring furnace.

Heavy brick walls, combined with the concentrated work of a dozen fire companies, prevented the fire from spreading to other buildings in the block, but considerable damage was caused by water and smoke.

Church Groups Hear Ballard In Opening Lecture

BEGINS SERIES OF LECTURES ON PSYCHOLOGY

Dr. J. Hudson Ballard of the Occidental college faculty spoke here last night before two appreciative audiences, one at the First Methodist church and the other at First Presbyterian church, in the first of a series of eight church night programs being sponsored at both churches.

Dr. Ballard is assembly speaker for the two church night courses speaking at both churches on Wednesday night of each week during the series. He will speak on the general topic, "Recent Psychology and Christian Living." His subject will be divided into eight subheads for discussion.

Last night Dr. Ballard talked on "The Value of a Sound Mind," speaking first at the Presbyterian church and later at the Methodist church. He started his talk with a quotation from Second Timothy 1:7, "God hath not given us the spirit of fear but of love and a sound mind."

Mind Most Distinctive

He said the Scriptures give promise of a sound mind for everyone, not just the gifted nor the genius, but the average person. Mind is the most distinctive part of a man he said. It is immeasurable, the most active, most powerful and most secret part of man.

It is mind that sets man apart from animal. He can shut off his sense avenues and live in his mind. All knowledge and thoughts of God is held in the mind and reference to the heart in a religious or emotional setting is the mind, he asserted.

The mind, unlike the body, is not shackled to two masters. The body is shackled to time and place but the mind can roam at will. It can re-live yesterday and anticipate tomorrow while the body lives only in the present.

Illustrating his point that the mind is the most active part of man, Dr. Ballard said that a man cannot use any part of his body all the time but the mind never ceases its work. He said that the constant working of the mind does not mean intellect only, but includes feeling and the will to do things.

Proving the power of the mind Dr. Ballard said that it controls every action of man and is the origin of habit and controls man's attitudes as well as a major portion of his physical well-being.

The most secretive part of man is his mind, according to Dr. Ballard who said that every word spoken or deed done by man is seen or heard by someone but man can do evil or good in his mind and no one ever knows.

Because mind is so supremely important and strategic part of man, it must be sound, declared the speaker in closing.

SCHOOL COSTS ORGANIZATION OF YOUNG MEN'S CLUB PLANNED

NEWPORT BEACH, Feb. 16. — Educationists, taxpayers and all interested parties must get together and discuss the question of school costs and other phases of taxes, so that some way out of the present situation may be found, Ray Adkinson, superintendent of schools for Orange county, told members of the Newport Harbor Service club at the weekly luncheon yesterday at the American Legion clubhouse.

Adkinson told how education costs had already been drastically reduced in Orange and other counties and explained several of the bills and proposed constitutional amendments introduced in the present session of the state legislature. The constitutional amendments, he pointed out, would have to be passed on by a vote of the people before taking effect.

The speaker said he was not speaking for or against any measure particularly, but was calling attention to the essential features of some of the important proposals and stated that it was to the interest of everybody interested to become acquainted with them.

Rodney Bacon of the Southern California Edison company, Fred Merker of the Southern Counties Gas company and E. S. Morrow of the Southern California Telephone company were guests at the luncheon. Bacon spoke in regard to the mounting taxes paid by public utilities of this state, and said that such measures as Senate Bill No. 2, introduced by Senator Inman, of Sacramento, would increase taxes, which would necessarily have to be passed on to the consumers of the public utility companies, whereas municipally owned utilities such as the power and light departments of Los Angeles and Pasadena, pay no taxes.

Dinner Party Comes As Prelude To Surprise Celebration

An evening which started with a family dinner party and concluded with a surprise celebration attended by the First Christian church choir was enjoyed recently by Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Mills, the occasion marking their 40th wedding anniversary.

The dinner party was given in the home of the honored guests' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Mills, 1069 West First street. Miss Martha May Mills, daughter of the hosts, shared honors at this time, for she had just attained her eleventh birthday.

A dinner table decorated with red crepe paper streamers was centered with a large cake adorned with hearts and eleven candles. Present in addition to the family group was a friend of Martha May, little Geraldine Morris.

Surprise Affair

The surprise party also had been planned by Mr. and Mrs. John J. Mills, and was given in the J. S. Mills home, 1077 West First street. After attending church rehearsal at the Christian church, they returned home, only to find that members of the choir and their son and daughter-in-law had followed them.

About 30 guests were present to observe the 40th anniversary of the honored guests. A mock wedding and other interesting events took place during the evening. Coffee and cake were served, with all decorations conforming to a valentine idea.

Tavern Tatlers Elect New Editorial Staff

As a result of the Jaycee Tavern Tatler meeting Tuesday evening Miss Carolyn Mueller heads the Tavern Post staff as editor-in-chief. Her staff will be composed of Miss Celestia Strunk, Harold Dittmer and William Blanchard, assistant editors; Miss Gertrude Jentres, art editor; Wilton Hilliard, business manager; Ray Archer, assistant business manager and Thomas Hall Glenn, faculty advisor.

Upon her election Miss Mueller resigned the position of secretary and Miss Beatrice Rankin was chosen in her place. Tentative plans were made to attend the production of Molnar's "Lilium" to be given at Pasadena Community playhouse in March. Original poems and essays were submitted by members of the club to the editor-in-chief for publication in the forthcoming edition of Tavern Post. It was decided that March 10 will be the deadline for contributions as the magazine will appear in April.

Announcement was made of the decision of the Tatlers to award a volume of prose as a prize for the best contribution and Robert Brown of the Santa Ana Book Store has offered a handsome volume of poetry for the best poem submitted to the Post.

Legion Women Hold Council Session

A gathering of 75 members of the American Legion auxiliary council of this county, convening Tuesday in Santa Ana Legion Legion hall, discussed preparations to be made for the annual Poppy Day sale scheduled for the last of May; and for a card party, a date for which was not set.

Mrs. Anne Chapline of Orange, a past state president, had recovered sufficiently from her siege of ill health to be present at Tuesday's meeting and to speak briefly. Reports were heard from all units of the council.

Romantic News Told At Gay Party In Hicks' Home

Although friends of Miss Ina Gregg and Gaylord Hicks had known of their engagement for the past several months, it was not until Tuesday evening that formal announcement of their approaching marriage was made. Mr. Hicks' mother, Mrs. C. D. Hicks and Miss Peggy McGarvin joined in entertaining at a lovely party in the former's home, 1223 South Broadway.

Planned as a surprise compliment to Miss Gregg, the occasion also brought a surprise to Mr. Hicks, for several of his young men associates had been invited to arrive at the home later in the evening.

Romantic Features

The romantic theme of the evening was further carried out when Miss Louise Mercer and Wesley Smith arrived to be united in marriage by the Rev. C. D. Hicks, who is pastor of the Christian and Missionary Alliance church. The ceremony was a very quiet one, performed in the effective floral setting which had been arranged for the party. The new Mr. and Mrs. Smith left immediately following the rites.

Still further opportunity for Cupid's dart was given at the conclusion of a treasure hunt, when a large valentine was found bearing the names of the honored sister, Miss Alta Gregg, and Carlton Rhinard, whose marriage is to be an event of the near future.

Showers

Feminine guests had showered Miss Ina Gregg with an assortment of lovely linens before the group of young men arrived to shower Mr. Hicks with an array of kitchen utensils.

For the occasion, the home had been decked with baskets of red sweet peas and ferns, with tiny red valentines suspended from fern sprays. Holding court on the piano, beneath an improvised arch, were a miniature bride and bridegroom, while the mantel bore pictures of Miss Gregg and Mr. Hicks, banked with greenery.

It was during the refreshment hour that formal announcement of the chosen wedding month was made. On each napkin one letter was written, and when all were combined a phrase was formed which stated, "Gaylord and Ina, in June." Vanilla ice-cream with red heart centers, cookies, and other dainties were served at this time.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Moody Schrock, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Underwood, Newell Garlick, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dill, Carlton Rhinard, Orville E. Hurd, Jesse L. Haddock, Miss Mildred Pyatt, Burdell Alloway, Reynold Hieser, Mrs. Carl W. Jungkeit, Merlon Hicks, Miss Ruth Smith, Mrs. A. J. Smith, Miss Opal Dell White, Ernest R. Matthes, Wayne Weber, Mrs. H. C. Hall, Mrs. Eva Gregg, Miss Louise Marshall, Miss Alta Gregg, Miss Dorothy Humphrey, Miss Mae Chilcoat, Miss Esther Hoar, Miss Rebecca Mudgett, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Mudgett, Miss Ardell Mudgett, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gilchrist, Miss Opal Chilcoat and Miss Madge Russell, with the honored guests, Miss Ina Gregg and Gaylord Hicks and the hostesses, Miss McGarvin and Mrs. Hicks, with the Rev. Hicks.

Miss Gregg does clerical work at the Alpha Beta store and Mr. Hicks is employed at Joe's Grocery. Both are graduates of Santa Ana high school.

YOU and your Friends

The Rev. T. W. Ringland, 1105 West Third street, pastor of the Church of the United Brethren, is leaving this week end for Oakland, where he will officially open the United Brethren church Sunday. The Rev. Mr. Ringland will not return until the middle of next week.

Mrs. Herman Reuter returned today to her home in Hollywood after a few days' visit with Mrs. R. A. Cushman, 632 North Broadway. Mrs. Cushman is spending several weeks in Santa Ana on business, having driven down from the Menocino State hospital at Talmage, where she and Dr. Cushman have been living since the latter's appointment to the superintendency last summer.

The Misses Nan and Lolita Mead, 2119 North Main street, are expecting a week end visit from Miss Karen Cooper of Los Angeles, who will arrive tomorrow.

Mrs. Florence Tisdler of Los Angeles was a guest last evening at a meeting of the Phi Zeta music society in the home of Mrs. Frances Beeson, 1121 Oak street.

Mrs. Charles Hoeft, 1401 Durant street, her houseguest, Miss Anne Kirchhoff of New York who is wintering in Santa Ana; Mrs. M. C. Williams and Mrs. Ruth Riegle were members of a party spending a day recently in Los Angeles.

Treasure Hunt Ends In Birthday Supper

Treasure hunting by bicycle was the unique experience enjoyed by a group of young people invited to the home of Miss Grace Heaney, 210 East Bishop street, one afternoon recently. The party was in celebration of Miss Heaney's fourteenth birthday anniversary.

Divided into two rival parties, the young people were sent scurrying from one point to another according to directions found and deciphered at various spots about the city. The trail eventually led back to the Heaney home where a key was discovered which was found to open an old chest crammer with shining new pennies.

One of the most enjoyable features of the evening was when the tiny baby son of the home wakened and was brought out by his mother's guests. His merry and fearless smiles won the hearts of everyone present, and he was easily the center of attraction.

There was but one absent member, Miss Dorothy Clarkson, who has been quite ill at her home, 801 Minter street. Present in addition to the hostess, Mrs. Albert Harvey, and the special guests, were the Misses Verna Wells and Lella Watson, Meadames J. D. Campbell, J. U. Viaw, Herman Reuter, R. A. Cushman, Frank Was, Roy Winchester, Nell Stanley, Marshall Harnois, N. E. Wells, Harry M. Smith, Maude Goff, L. M. McClintock, Blanche Brown, Marah Adams and Emmett Elliott.

Daughters of Veterans

The proximity of Lincoln's birthday made especially appropriate the talk on Lincoln given before Daughters of American Veterans yesterday by Mrs. Olive Willard, patriotic instructor of Sarah A. Rounds Tent No. 10.

Applications for membership, made by Mrs. Ortha Wade and Mrs. Lois Cook, were considered during a business meeting which also saw reports concerning the 31 bouquets presented, 34 calls read and $97 expended for patriotic work this past month. The tent received an invitation from the Women's Relief corps to attend a reception for Commander J. H. Brown February 28. The tent will hold a tea Friday at 2 o'clock with Mrs. Louane Leech, 426 East Chapman avenue, Orange, according to announcement. Transportation may be arranged by calling Mrs. Minnie Cowan, 5276-J.

Heart-shaped cookies were served with tea at the meeting's conclusion.

Advertising Manager Attends L. A. Meeting

Mrs. Marie Fowler, 1109 French street, was in Los Angeles early this week, where she was privileged to attend the annual luncheon held by the Women's Advertising club of that city by the Men's organization, in the Biltmore hotel.

Mrs. Fowler, who is advertising manager of the Rankin Dry Goods store, found the meeting of special interest and was present as the guest of Mrs. Anne Leidenicker, head of the science and industrial department of the Los Angeles City library. Mrs. Leidenicker is well known to Santa Ana Business and Professional Women's club and is a speaker at a recent district meeting here. She is program chairman for the national B. and P. W.

Quill Pen Club Greet Two Members After Long Absence

Tuesday night's meeting of Quill Pen club was an unusually pleasant occasion in the home of Mrs. Albert Harvey, 1314 South Parton street, for it called out the largest attendance of the year with two non-resident members, present Mrs. R. A. Cushman of Talmage, and Mrs. Herman Reuter of Hollywood.

So pleasant was the reunion that program features were limited to three manuscripts, so that the greater part of the evening might be given to more social pleasures. Mrs. E. Nell Stanley presented the first in a gay tale of "Brotherly Love," with a surprise climax, and Mrs. J. D. Campbell, club president, read the amusing continuity written for certain favorite radio comedians.

Mrs. E. B. DePree, an interesting guest of the evening, graciously read a stirring story of old San Juan Capistrano which reflected the romance of early California days and which she titled "Conchita and the Golden Cal of San Miguel."

Club members were warm in their congratulations to Miss Lella Watson, whose play was one of our four winners in the Santa Ana Community Players' one-act play contest. However, original plays had been entered in the contest, and the four chosen by the judges will be presented on the March program of the association. In competition for the prize offered.

Mrs. Marshall Harnois, secretary, announced that the meeting of February 28 would be with Mrs. N. E. Wells and Miss Verna Wells, 210 East Bishop street, and that manuscripts would be due from Miss Dorothy Clarkson, Mrs. Roy Winchester and Mrs. Marah Adams.

Mrs. Albert Harvey and Mrs. DuPree were special guests of the evening and Mrs. Harvey assisted her daughter-in-law in serving refreshments buffet style. The table was a charming study in valentine arrangement, with its scarlet candles in harmony with the hearts caught carelessly among snow-white sweet peas. Ranunculus blossoms in bright colors were used elsewhere in the home.

One of the most enjoyable features of the evening was when the tiny baby son of the home wakened and was brought out by his mother's guests. His merry and fearless smiles won the hearts of everyone present, and he was easily the center of attraction.

There was but one absent member, Miss Dorothy Clarkson, who has been quite ill at her home, 801 Minter street. Present in addition to the hostess, Mrs. Albert Harvey, and the special guests, were the Misses Verna Wells and Lella Watson, Meadames J. D. Campbell, J. U. Viaw, Herman Reuter, R. A. Cushman, Frank Was, Roy Winchester, Nell Stanley, Marshall Harnois, N. E. Wells, Harry M. Smith, Maude Goff, L. M. McClintock, Blanche Brown, Marah Adams and Emmett Elliott.

Valentine Party Comes As Compliment To Mothers

Sigma Theta sorority members chose valentine day as an appropriate occasion for complimenting their mothers, reserving the evening hours for an at home in the home of Mrs. J. L. McBride, 1110 Spurgeon street. Lovely bouquets of spring flowers provided effective decorations for the affair.

In the receiving line were the Misses Jean Silver, Ruth Owens, Elma McBride and Mrs. McBride. Mothers were presented with gardenia corsages.

An enjoyable program included piano selections by Miss Rachel Lamb, a reading by Miss Frances Bowman and a dramatic skit by the Misses Marguerite Lentz, Ruth Owens, Elma McBride and Loretta Spangler.

Coffee and tea were served from a beautifully appointed table.

Guests were Meadames Roscoe Hewitt, R. E. West, Gwendy J. C. Horton, Mayme Homan, Anna Bowman, A. B. Burns, R. Irvin, Earl Lamb, Norbert Lentz, J. L. McBride, I. J. Owens, William Rohrbacher, W. F. Job's Daughters

Another of their enjoyable benefit parties was given Tuesday night by Santa Ana Bethel Job's Daughters, who entertained with a valentine affair in Masonic temple lounge. Cards were played, with Miss Mary Kettler and Charles Kendall scoring high and Miss Margaret Sawyer and L. M. Pearson, low.

Refreshments were served in the dining room, where red hearts were used in decorating. Those on the refreshment committee were Dora Perkins, Virginia Mustel and Mary Majors. The general committee was headed by Ruth Baker, with Eloise Schrier and Betty Niedergall as her assistants.

Parent-Teachers

A gathering which proved a highlight in the school term from a double standpoint of profit and pleasure, occurred yesterday afternoon when the Mothers' club of Hoover school convened at the school for a valentine party.

A talk of special value was presented by Miss Hubertene Kuenean, supervisor of the Santa Ana elementary schools, who answered a number of important questions put by the mothers, with a clarity and pointedness which members of the club found most satisfying. The questions followed Miss Kuenean's discussion of education in the elementary schools.

A charming musical interlude was afforded by Miss Florine Pollock's pleasing performance in three French songs for which her mother, Mrs. Harold K. Pollock, furnished accompaniment. Third grade pupils of Mrs. Ann A. Ward reviewed informally the names of the great whose birthdays have occurred in the month of February, and the program was closed with the singing of "America."

The mothers subsequently joined the two hostesses, Mrs. F. A. Buckett and Mrs. A. L. Helberg, at a table beautifully appointed with cover of valentine design, centered with red sweet peas and laid with plates of homemade heart-shaped cookies and cakes.

Effective Use Made Of Red and White Theme

Making effective use of the red and white theme of St. Valentine's day, Mr. and Mrs. Earl McBay entertained members of their bridge club recently at Ketter's cafe. A delicious steak dinner preceded an evening of cards.

Guests were seated at a long table brightened with red sweet peas and maiden-hair fern. Tall red tapers rose from candlesticks made lovely with fluted ruffles of deep red cellophane. Gleaming white linens and heart-shaped placecards contributed to the table decorations.

A merry feature of the evening was exchange of valentine greetings, each member having drawn a name and selecting an appropriate token.

Bridge games followed, with totals on valentine tables revealing that Mrs. R. P. Meairs and Mrs. Thomas Smith scored first and second high for women, and Erna Burns and Everett Boynton first and second high for men. Mrs. W. McKay and Ben Danker won prizes for having scores nearest the sum of 1300.

Those present were the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. McBay, and Messrs. and Meadames Worth Alexander, Everett Boynton, Erna Burns, Thomas Tournant, Ben Danker, Otto Householder, Marcus Lassiter, R. P. Meairs, W. McKay, Harold Moomaw and Thomas Smith, all of Santa Ana and vicinity.

NEW PROGRAM WILL FEATURE HITS OF DAY

The Ray McIntosh Meat Market inaugurates a series of programs over KRKG this evening, when an interesting quarter hour of hits of the day is presented. Leading artists will be heard in popular recordings.

Tonight's program will suggest that Orange County recognize Tuesday as "fish day" in addition to the proverbial Friday. McIntosh will point to a national movement now in effect with that as an objective.

"Fish days and omelets have a fuel value of 4,220 calories per pound, as compared with potatoes which have a fuel value of 445 calories," declared McIntosh today. The Santa Ana dealer will also make known that the State Fish Exchange of the California Department of Agriculture is co-operating in creating greater consumption of fresh fish. The exchange has published a comprehensive and attractive cook book entitled "Five Hundred Ways to Prepare California Sea Foods." This will be distributed to anyone interested in the preparation of sea foods, McIntosh says.

LIST CHARACTERS IN RADIO SERIAL

Here is a list of the principal characters who appear daily, except Sunday and Monday, in the radio serial "Chandu, the Magician":

Frank "Chandu" Chandler, played by Gayne Whitman; Dorothy Regent, the mother, Margaret Macdonald; Betty Regent, the daughter, Betty Webb; Nicholas, Princess Nadli, Celeste Rush; Princess Nadli, Celeste Rush; Robert Regent sr., Charles F. Lindley.

This program is sponsored by the Rio Grande gasoline company over KRKG, being heard at noon and again at 6:45 p. m. Tonight's program will make announcement of a new gift offer by the gasoline company.

The Montgomery Sisters in their daily presentation of "Evening Reveries" broadcast daily at 5:30 p. m. over KRKG are offering a program that is particularly suitable to the evening hour.

Their nightly presentations are selected light classics, restful and refreshing, played on cello, violin and piano. Whether or not these programs will be continued depends on listeners. If sufficient written comment is received at the studio the programs will be continued.

KREG NOTES

Another travel talk on Great Britain is scheduled for tonight at 6:15 o'clock. The topic will be "Britain in 1933." The material was prepared by George C. Curnock and is a word picture of what the visitor to the British Isles will see today.

The Four Happy Brothers have adopted two more specialists for the act over KRKG. Tonight Cliff Nolan, tenor and mandolin specialist (they go well together) and Jimmy Fisher, yodeler will be heard on the Brothers' program from 7:30 to 8 p. m.

The Orange County Kill Willies are always glad to receive request numbers from friends. They are urging that these requests be mailed to them in care of the studio in order to have them included in the program on Thursday night. Go on, send in a request.

Brick English and his popular Rendezvous orchestra will again be presented by the Pelton Motor company this evening. The program is scheduled for a half hour period beginning at 7 o'clock.

Two of these are Hungarian Dances, No. 2 and No. 5 and the third is the Allegretto movement from his first symphony.

REASON FOR CONGRATULATION

The country was shocked last evening on receipt of a report that an attempt had been made upon the life of President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt. Undoubtedly the first thought of millions of people was that it was an act of some hungry unemployed person who had become desperate. But this was not the case. The spirit of good will and of order and self-restraint and respect for law, government, and officials as a whole in this country, is an absolute marvel.

No, this desperate act in which the President-elect had a close call, Mayor Cermak of Chicago was seriously if not fatally wounded, and several others seriously wounded, was the act of a mad man. When captured, it was found he would speak coherently, and then again his language showed no connection with orderly thought. He is an Italian, declares that he had planned to kill Italy's king 10 years ago; that his stomach trouble had made him desperate now, and that he wanted to kill officials, people of power, and of wealth.

There seems to be absolutely no connection between his act and the distress or need of any individual or group in this country. In fact, it is probable that the great masses who are in need today, are looking forward with hope and expectation to the inauguration of Franklin D. Roosevelt, and undoubtedly nearly all of them would consider the death of Mr. Roosevelt a personal loss of major proportions.

This is the fourth attempt that has been made to assassinate a President of the United States, or a President-elect. And if we include a past-President, it is the fifth, for former President Roosevelt was shot in Milwaukee in 1912. The four men who made direct attempts upon Presidents or Presidents-elect were John Wilkes Booth, Charles Guiteau, Leon Czolgosz and Joe Zangara. The last three were not men who were brought up under the benefits of American institutions. All four men, with a liberal construction on their actions, were insane. Certainly it would be true, with the possible exception of John Wilkes Booth. Not that we are urging that they did not know right from wrong, but certainly we would urge that they were in an abnormal condition of mind.

This narrow escape of the President-elect certainly would impress the country with the value of placing upon the ticket at our national election, a candidate for the vice-presidency who is fully equipped to carry on the great work of our Chief Executive. The death of President-elect Roosevelt would unquestionably present to the United States a calamity that would be little short of catastrophic.

We hope for the recovery of all of the victims of the shooting. The nation is to be congratulated, as is President-elect Roosevelt and his family, on the failure of the would-be assassin to achieve his purpose. It certainly would seem that Providence were protecting Mr. Roosevelt at that hour. Let us be comforted with this thought.

It is a great shock to the nation, but in these stressful times, it may be well that this experience has been had, so that a higher degree of caution may be used by the President-elect himself, and by others for his protection.

It is very probable that President-elect Roosevelt will be advised to avoid many public appearances, and when he does appear, that great care will be taken that there is no repetition of such an experience as has happened at Miami. Immediately following the death of President McKinley, there was extraordinary caution exercised in the protection of Theodore Roosevelt.

America, on the whole, however, has been wonderfully free from the anarchistic problem, and there are not the outstanding leaders emphasizing anarchistic principles as there were in the days of Herr Most, Emma Goldman and Charles Bergman. In this country our President mingles with the people. While protected by secret service men at all times, yet in a very wonderful way, the President is a part of the crowd. And it has had a fine effect during the years, upon the spirit of our people. He is one of us, raised by our votes to a position of great power as an executive. He returns again to private life and takes up editorial work, or enters public life, or quietly practices his profession.

It is far better that we run the risk of such an untoward incident as yesterday's, by the conduct of the President as we have had him during the decades, than that we have him isolated from the masses of the people, and thereby breed the very condition which we wish to avoid.

THE CENSOR BECOMES RIDICULOUS

The customs officials at New York held up reproductions or photographs of Michael Angelo's famous frescoes on the ceiling of the Pope's Sistine chapel in the Vatican. They were held up on the ground that they were "obscene," and violating a section of the tariff act. They were released yesterday, however.

There is so much humor connected with this that it is very difficult for people to become indignant about it. It may be difficult to find fault with the custom official. He knew his law. He thought he knew what nakedness was, but he didn't know Michael Angelo. But then if he were better acquainted with Michael Angelo, and the paintings in the Sistine chapel, he probably wouldn't have been a custom official.

There is a constant attempt of people to exercise judgment upon what other people shall see or read or hear. We have seen these frescoes in the Sistine chapel, and the idea of obscenity did not occur to us. But we should remember that some of the Popes have objected, and have had some changes, or coverings painted over portions of the figures.

Some time ago, objections were made to Einstein's coming to this country, because he didn't believe in war, or that he did believe in socialism, or something or other. In consequence of this protest, he was examined by our consul, and grilled, to the consternation of Mr. Einstein, to the disgust of thinking people in America, and the amusement of the world. But we have the same thing here locally, or may we say, in our county.

Dr. Paul Blanchard, a director of the Citizens' committee of New York City, through whose investigations New York was purged of its Jimmy Walker, and who is one of the secretaries of the League for Industrial Democracy, lectured here in our city, and there was a protest made by the president of a district of the Parent-Teachers association.

In this protest, the declaration was made: "If we are correctly informed, the League for Industrial Democracy is a part of the Communist movement." The writer of the protest evidently didn't know who Paul Blanchard was; and didn't know what the League for Industrial Democracy stands for. If she had known, she would have known that Paul Blanchard has been one of the targets at which the Communists have been shooting. She very evidently doesn't know what Communism is, and probably never during her life time, heard either Paul Blanchard or a Communist speaker deliver an address. But she presumed to tell the thinking people, who were endeavoring to learn from those people who have become specialists in their lines, what they should hear, and what they should not hear.

It is a queer world in which we are living. People set themselves up as guardians of other people's thinking and reading and hearing, who themselves have not heard the very matter for which they assume the right to judge. No one can judge of any matter without knowledge of the matter, through inquiry and through understanding, and when one has acquired this understanding, and has reached a judgment for himself, it is necessary to grant the other man the same privilege of acquiring knowledge, so that he in turn can judge for himself, and after hearing, there may be a difference of opinion.

We were at a meeting the other evening, and the question was asked how many had ever heard a Communist. We were rather ashamed to have to keep our hand down, never having heard in a public address anyone on the subject of Communism, who was a convert to it. We have read concerning it. We disagree heartily with some of its fundamentals, but we have never listened to an address.

There are those, for whose opinions concerning ideas and views and speeches, we have deep respect. But, strange to say, those for whose opinions we have this respect, are not the ones at all who are trying to censure what other people shall see and hear. They rather take the position that "let them learn as we learned, by seeing and hearing, and studying and comparing." This is America. This is free speech. These are the institutions which we should preserve.

JAPAN MAY NOT WITHDRAW

We have some doubts as to whether Japan will finally withdraw from the League. She has acted as though she were indifferent to the desires of the nations, or at least determined, regardless of their wishes, to accomplish her purpose.

But after all, Japan has made considerable progress in her standing among the nations of the world. She is one of the "Big Five" in the Council of the League. She ranks now in public thought always with the great nations. She occupies such a position that if it were within possibility, the nations would concede to her her particular desires.

Japan unquestionably has leaders who see that her demands are entirely out of harmony with what is possible. And that should she make the final break, no one could prophesy as to the outcome. Japan is in no position as Germany was. She cannot continue to defy the world. Her resources are extremely limited. Taxes are high. Her borrowing power will be entirely spent the moment she takes the last step. It is quite significant that her stock market was closed because of the slump in Japanese securities, on the news of the determined opinion of the other members of the League of Nations.

She probably will find some way, as gracefully as she can, to hold all that she can hold, and give up the balance.

A CORRECTION IN THE WHIRLIGIG

In the "European Whirligig" the other day, the following appeared: "The faithful who visit Rome during the Holy Year—April 2, 1933-April 2, 1934—will be granted full remission of sins if they make three visits to one or more of the four Roman churches designated for the purpose."

This, we find, is contrary to the facts. The writer apparently did not understand the conditions, but the truth is the teaching of the church is that an "indulgence" is the remission of temporary punishment due to sin after the sin has been forgiven.

A MAN OF EXPERIENCE

An interesting side-light, that is read almost with a sense of humor, is the wire from the physician at the head of the Board of Health in Chicago, who is Cermak's private physician.

He says he is willing to come to Miami by airplane at a moment's notice; that he has had much experience in gunshot wounds. At the head of Chicago's Health department, he would

THE FIGHTING SPIRIT

I'd like to see a polar bear
Combat a lion in its lair,
With dripping jaws
And slashing claws,
While blows fell fast and furious,
I don't know why I take delight
In such a fierce and lethal fight
Except perhaps
That nervous chaps
Like rabbits, all are curious.

I'd like to watch a killer whale
A seven-fathom shark assail,
And, although gushed
And torn and slashed,
Remain unmoved and stoical.
I am not sure why I am keen
To witness such a dreadful scene.
Unless maybe
That sheep like me
Are always unheroical.

I like to watch two pugilists
Exchanging cuffs with heavy fists,
And trading blows
To eye and nose
With obvious avidity.
I don't know why I get a thrill
From every human flailing nill!
But any brawl
Is loved by all
Us victims of timidity.

PARAGRAPHS

Sometimes we wonder how much more Congress could soak us if it wasn't being economical.

So Europe will deliberately debase its currency. And the present worth of signatures proves it a good debaser, too.

Maybe Uncle Sam could cancel debts with the understanding that it wouldn't count unless it ended the depression.

Anyway, it's nice of the Japs to let us keep on using their Pacific.

The Chinese have 250,000 troops in Jehol to meet Japan's 30,000. At last they get an even break.

FEW PROBLEMS WILL REMAIN WHEN YOU SEE BOYS CLAMORING FOR THE AUTOGRAPH OF A CHAMPION CORN HUSKER.

The little boy in the third row will please point out the nation that wouldn't grab China if it dared.

So the Senate spends $9000 a year for mineral water. Well, it's nice to know that some mineral is worth something.

AMERICANISM: Calling it a government by the people because we elect representatives to make the laws we desire; meekly submitting when the Supreme Court says we can't have such laws.

Call the racketeer's bluff. The police may protect you. If they won't—if that is the kind of country we have—you're better off dead, anyway.

The hard part of saving a country is to increase expenditures while reducing expenses.

The poor farmer? Boloney! Let's see a crowd of city people shoo the law away and stop a foreclosure.

So the price of bologna is falling. Well it's only fair. We've fallen for it long enough.

The fact that a dozen men own America wouldn't matter if they'd buy 40 million pair of pants, shoes, socks, etc.

The more the government spends, the better off we are—if it buys the same things the taxpayer would.

Europe's tone of voice teaches us a lesson. We haven't been arrogant enough about what we owe.

Thoughts On Modern Life

WEALTH GOES DYNAMIC

I have often emphasized in these articles the fact that the supreme problem of our generation is how to adjust our old economic policies to our new technical processes so that our magnificent machine economy can be kept a going concern.

This means that many of the old ideas about wages, hours, prices, profits and wealth itself simply will not work in this new age of science and the machine.

The old conception of wealth, for instance, will no longer work. In the days before physical science and industrial technology had remade our economic world, wealth was thought of as a static something to be captured.

In this day of technologically organized production, wealth must be thought of as a dynamic something that must be continuously created and recreated.

Stuart Chase, who is, I think, a bit too theoretical in some of his analyses, and a bit too credulous in his acceptance of some current notions of central planning, has nevertheless done a real service in emphasizing this shift of the nature of wealth from the static to the dynamic, although I do not remember his having so described this shift.

Recently, in reviewing that profoundly significant book, The Modern Corporation and Private Property, by Berle and Means, Mr. Chase called attention to the fact that the balance sheet valuation of physical assets is fast losing meaning.

He meant by this that the physical assets of the modern industrial enterprise have value, in any major sense, only if the company continues to function.

In the old days, when a small and simple factory went on the rocks, the owners could usually find a profitable market for the factory building and its equipment.

Today a monstrous and magnificently organized automatic factory, if it went on the rocks, probably would find its machinery worth little more than scrap-iron value except to a new group that might want to keep the automatic factory actually in operation.

How often fathers and mothers say, "I don't understand him." Nor does anyone else most of the time. We have learned a few, a very few truths about children, but for the greater part their ways are still shrouded in mystery.

A child is born into a good home. Everything possible is done to develop him into a first class human being. The whole family pull with might and main, but the child remains fixed as he was.

His ways are beyond comprehension. His tastes are foreign. His thoughts are his own. In despair the family begs the school, the church, the whole of organized society to help make this child conform. Still he does not conform. Why? I don't know.

It seems to me as I watch that there is a certain pattern set in the child at birth. Sometimes it seems as though it had been cut down deep, so deep that no outside influence could touch it. Slowly, steadily as immutable as Time, it works its way through the life of the child for good or ill as it was set in the beginning.

Not quite. Every once in a while somebody manages to reach it and some modification is made. But it is not fundamental. The instant the influence is lifted the pattern reasserts itself and the old order works again. The only thing one can do is to go along with the scheme and do what is possible to direct it toward good ends. Sometimes we fail even then.

Now that we have faced the worst there is a grain of comfort to be found in the fact that no child, however set in his way, can escape being good in places.
